ANNUAL REMINDERS

DORMANT ACCOUNTS
As a reminder, accounts go into a dormant state after one year of no activity. After three years of inactivity, CTCU is required by the state of Texas to turn over your account(s) and remit all funds to the Unclaimed Property Division. Please make a transaction (deposit or withdrawal) from your account annually to avoid this inconvenience.

ACCOUNT VERIFICATION
Please verify your address, phone numbers and email address with us to ensure that we have the correct information in our system.

COMPLAINT NOTIFICATION
This Credit Union is incorporated under the laws of the state of Texas and under state law is subject to regulatory oversight by the Texas Credit Union Department. Any member wishing to file a complaint against this Credit Union should contact the Texas Credit Union Department through one of the means indicated below.

PRIVACY NOTICE DISCLOSURE

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

INFORMATION WE COLLECT AND DISCLOSE ABOUT YOU:

The type of personal information we collect and share depends on the product or service you have with us. This information can include: social security number and account balances, overdraft history and credit history, and payment history and wire transfer instructions. When you are no longer our member, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

HOW WE SHARE YOUR INFORMATION:

All financial companies need to share members' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their members' personal information, the reasons CTCU chooses to share and whether you can limit this sharing.

1. For our everyday business purposes - such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal in investigations or report to credit bureaus
2. For our marketing purposes - to offer our products and services to you
3. For joint marketing with other financial companies

State law and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

WE DO NOT SHARE INFORMATION:

1. For our affiliates' everyday business purposes, information about your transactions and experiences
2. For our affiliates' everyday business purposes, information about your credit worthiness
3. For non-affiliates to market to you

HOW WE PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION:

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

HOW WE COLLECT YOUR INFORMATION:

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

1. Open an account or make a wire transfer
2. Show us your government-issued ID or apply for financing
3. Show us your driver's license

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus or other companies.

CAN YOU LIMIT OUR SHARING?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

1. Information shared about your credit worthiness for our affiliates' everyday business purposes
2. Affiliates from using your information to market to you
3. Sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

It's now easier than ever to join CTCU!

As of December 9th, 2022, our Regular Savings and Kids Club accounts are no longer required for membership.

Instead, any type of account or loan will secure membership! Additionally, the initial account balance and minimum balance for Regular Savings and Kids Club accounts have been lowered to zero.

For more information, you can view our membership requirements, disclosures, and terms by scanning the QR code.
